31st March 2010

Dear Parents,

As part of next term's context we are organising a Victorian Week, this will involve trips out of school, activities in school and an outside group putting on entertainment. Victorian Week will take place the week commencing the 16rd May 2011. A brief schedule of the week is listed below:

Monday 16th May: Preparation + normal timetable

Tuesday 17th May: Preston Manor and Hove Museum Trip

Wednesday 18th May: Victorian Art

Thursday 19th May: Dry Hill Fort walk, BBQ, Victorian Music Hall performance and sleepover.

Friday 20th May: Breakfast and Victorian School Day

A voluntary contribution of £25.00 is asked to cover the cost of the activities organised for the week. This includes:

- Entrance fee to Preston Manor and role-play led by two actors
- Hire of lunch room
- Session fee for Hove Museum and handling session led by museum teacher
- Coach travel to and from Brighton
- BBQ dinner on Thursday evening
- Breakfast on Friday
- Transport to Dry Hill Fort
- Victorian Music Hall performance (led by an outside group)

Your child will not be excluded if you feel unable to contribute. However, without parental contributions the school could not continue to offer these learning experiences. If you do have a difficulty contributing, please speak to Mrs. Blatcher (Bursar) or Mr. Gandolfo.

We will be sending out more detailed information after the Easter Holidays. Please complete and sign the slip on the following page and return by Wednesday 27th April.

Yours Sincerely

N. Perera      D. Howton
